12:55-13:55	Group Photo & Lunch Break
13:55-14:30	Title: On the limitations of probabilistic claims about the probative value of mixed DNA profile evidence Allan Jamieson, The Forensic Institute , United Kindom
14:30-15:05	Title: The ReAct project: Bayesian networks for assessing the value of the results given activity level propositions Peter Gill, Oslo University Hospital, Norway
Featured Talks

15:20-15:45	Title: A neuroscience perspective on the plasticity of the social and relational brain
	Tania Singer, Max Planck Society, Germany
15:45-16:05	Refreshments Break@ Foyer
16:05-16:30	Title: Yet not recieved
	Julie Udry, University of Geneva, Switzerland
16:30-16:55	Title: On-Device Qwen2. 5: Efficient LLM Inference with Model Compression and Hardware Acceleration
	WANG Bo Angela, Singapore University of Technology & Design, Singapore
Speaker Slots Available
Day 2 (April 10, 2026)
08:30-09:30	Registrations
Plenary Session
10:00-10:45	Title: A methodology for constructing narrative Bayesian networks for the evaluation of forensic fibre evidence given activity level propositions
	Claude Roux, University of Technology Sydney, Australia
10:45-11:30	Title: Behavioral experiments and brain imaging techniques to investigate cognitive characteristics
	Yanhong Wu, Peking University, China
11:30-11:50	Refreshments Break@ Foyer
Keynote session
11:50-12:25	Title: Yet not recieved
	William Blair, Hamad Bin Khalifa University-Qatar, Qatar

12:25-12:55	Title: Development and Validation of Inductively Coupled Plasma Mass Spectrometry Method for Quantification of Lithium in Whole Blood from Forensic Postmortem Cases
	Sys Stybe Johansen, University of Copenhagen, Denmark
13:55-14:30	Title: Convergence performances of various adaptive filter algorithms with application to system identification
	Saeed Al Ali, United Arab Emirates University, United Arab Emirates
14:30-15:05	Title: Yet not recieved
	Lise Bosman, University of Cape Town, South Africa
Featured Talks
15:05-15:20	Title: Yet not recieved
